

BAMBOOZLED

Upon confronting himself
the narcissist will often hide amongst bamboo

The pandas of the psychic world often prone to failed breeding preferring their own gender Within their bamboo stand

Descent from home
through mired stench trench
Up to a pot
Where I sat and wept

No stand, just sit
a lonesome clump
place to shit
or feelings dump.

Across the way another called echo of the first Mother to the other, maybe,
or itself the first?

Straight shooting people
in deep discussion
Shoot eating pandas
in dire strait's

Narcissist to their self Pandas to their natures
Each to each
Lost to the world

They eat it up you see
and shit it out without a doubt something we could not

Sorry to see the pandas gone Narcissus hung himself from the apos trope fee
